

INFORMATION REPORT

REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

CD NO.

25X1A

DATE DISTR. 23 March 1950

NO. OF PAGES 3

NO. OF ENCLS.
CLISTED BELOWSUPPLEMENT TO 25X1X
REPORT NO.

COUNTRY Hungary

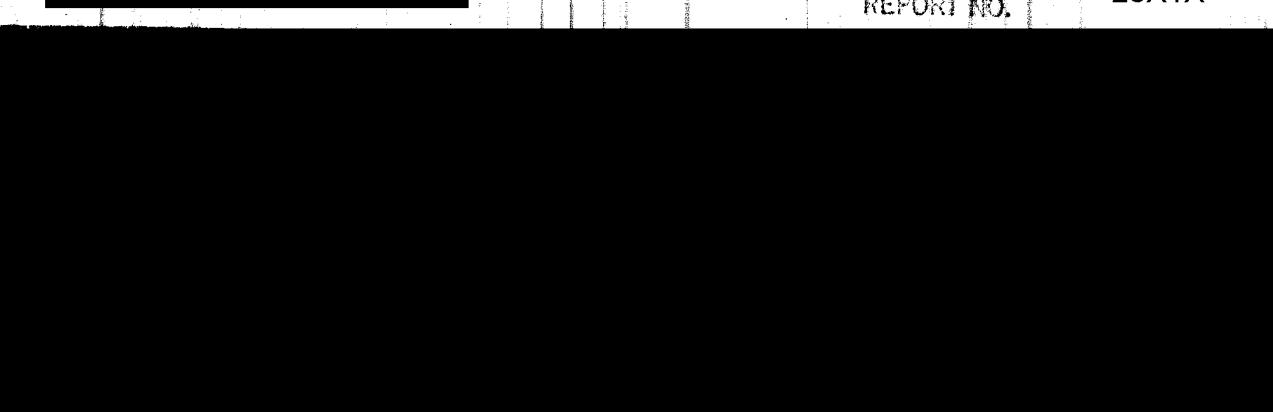

SUBJECT Leading Communist Women

PLACE ACQUIRED [REDACTED]

DATE OF INFO. [REDACTED]

RETURN TO CIA
LIBRARY

25X1A

1. The following is a list of the leading female Communists and "fellow travelers" in Hungary.

JÓBORU, Magda

Secretary general of the MNDSz (Hungarian Democratic Women's Organization).

POKORNÝ, Mrs. Hermann

Head of the "intelligence section" of the MNDSz. Wife of General Pokorny, who is said to be the greatest cipher expert in central Europe.

VADAS, Sara

Wife of Szilán Sas.

FAZEKAS, Erzsébet

Wife of Dr. Géza.

ORVATAY, Mrs. Gyula

Responsible for changing the folklore and folk customs of Hungarian villages and introducing Russian ways.

MOLNÁR, Mrs. László

Head of the propaganda section of the MNDSz.

SIMECSKO, Margit

Secretary of the Hungarian Ironworkers Trade Union.

KOVÁCS, Mrs. Tibor

Head of the construction section of the MNDSz.

VIZI, Mrs. Miklós

General manager of the Polgar Brewery.

SÁDORI, Mrs. Antal

Chief organizer of the Communist school at the Hanfried Mine factory at Csépöl.

KUGGERA, Mrs. Pal

Organizer of the four-week Communist schools throughout Hungary.

HORVÁTH, Mrs. János

Party organizer at the Danuvia gun and ammunition factory.

NAGY, Mrs. József

Preparing of party organizer at the rubber factory of Újpest.

CLASSIFICATION

Approved For Release 2001/03/06 : CIA-RDP83-00415R004500200001-8

STATE	* AIR	NSRB
ARMY	* AIR	FBI

CONTINUATION OF THE PREVIOUS PAGE

2

GASDI, Mrs. Karoly	Social section, Budapest.
ANDICS, Prof. Erzsébet	Wife of Andras Berek. Has a special assignment at the University of Budapest to change the school textbooks of Hungarian and world history.
KUTAT, Mrs. Janos	Former shop keeper (candles); now State Secretary in Ministry of Education, special section for art and culture.
KENKE, Valeria	Specially trained for lecturing on Marx and Leninism.
DANKI, Zsuzsa	Activist; alleged to spy on theatre personalities.
INTYIVESI, Mrs. Gabor	Organizer of the Communist school of the MNDSZ; appointed to investigate training in Budapest and recommend evictions.
CARAI, Vera	Member of Parliament and teacher at a Communist school. Delivered many lectures on the "magnificence" of the new Hungarian Constitution.
CHUSKA, Maris	Belongs to the "Aktivis" of the Party. General manager of all Hungarian poultry farms. Organizer of a Communist school.
GALOCSI, Mrs. Gyorgy	Organizer of a Party school.
COBBI, Wilma	Party organizer for the National Theatre.
COBBI, Mrs. Mihaly	In charge of Party organization within the Ministry of Education.
KEMJAT, Irén (Mrs. Aladar?)	Teacher in a Communist school; writes articles in Szabolcs.
KENYERES Bolgár, Mrs. Agnes	Belongs to the "Aktivis"; section leader of the Institute for Cultural Relations.
KALYAN, Zsuzsa	Works in the office of the City Attorney of Budapest. Teacher at a Communist school.
LOPANT, Sarolta	Electrical engineer; leader of Communist training at the Ganz electrical factory.
MARIASSI, Mrs. Feliz	Chief of the cultural section of the Soviet-Hungarian Culture Society, Miskolc.
OLT, Mrs. Károly	Organized the "aid for Greek children" (i.e., those taken away from captured villages by the rebel army).
ODOCH, Piroska	Head of the military nursing school, Szeged; teacher, lecturer, and writer.
REVAL, Mrs. József	Trained in Moscow. Section chief in the Ministry of Education.
RÉPKO, Vera	Minister of Social Welfare. In prison during Horthy régime.
SCHEIDT, Erzsébet	Leader of the Hungarian Brigade of the textile factories. Teacher at Communist school. Appointed to attend Dimitrov's funeral.
SZENTO, Zsuzsa	Member of the Russian Department of the University of Budapest.
SZKLACSI, Rose	Secretary of the Hungarian youth organization.

CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROLLING OFFICIALS ONLY

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

VERSS SZÜCS, Mrs. Marike

Formerly secretary at the Hungarian Legation in Paris, where it was her task to spy on members in the Legation. Now in Ministry of Foreign Affairs, assigned to keep track of Hungarians in other countries; selects university students to be sent abroad to report on activities of Hungarian exiles.

VISONTAI, Mrs. László

Belongs to the "Aktiva". Assigned to train girls to become partisans. Claims to have come to Budapest with the Red Army as a fighter.

ZALKA, Dr. (Mrs.) Odon

Director of the Saint Stephan Hospital. Teacher at a Communist school.

CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROLLING OFFICIALS ONLY

U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY